

EUPOL COPPS supports Palestinian Civil Police meeting with Civil Society Organizations

EUPOL COPPS supported a workshop where the Palestinian Civil Police (PCP) had an open discussion with a number of Civil Society Organizations. The objective was to further improve the level of partnership and cooperation between the PCP and Civil Society Organizations. Accountability is a major topic in all Police services all over the world. It underlines how the Police are at the service of the population.

Police officers and prosecutors conclude study trip to Belgium

EUPOL COPPS mission organized a week-long study trip for members of Palestinian Civil Police and prosecutors to Brussels, to enhance their capabilities to effectively investigate and prosecute serious crimes. The core aim of the visit was to expose members of the Palestinian Police and Public Prosecution to how the Belgian authorities deals in practice with seized items, and learn about the Belgian legal framework for seizure and confiscation.

EUPOL COPPS supports efforts of PACC

The Palestinian Anti Corruption Commission (PACC) organized on the 7th of December a celebration of the International Anti-Corruption Day. PACC highlighted the importance of fighting corruption in Palestine in order to further strengthen its institutions, with the ultimate aim to have a Palestine freed from corruption. A list of accomplishments reached in 2014 were read out, with particular emphasis on the 450 complaints filed with the PACC.

Declaration by High Representative Federica Mogherini on behalf of the European Union on Human Rights Day

We celebrated Human Rights Day to mark the adoption, 66 years ago, by the United Nations General Assembly of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. The theme for this year's International Human Rights Day - Human Rights 365 reflect the aspiration that each one of us, everywhere, at all times, is entitled to the full range of human rights.

High level Palestinian delegation meets with Justice sector senior officials in Romania

As part of its efforts to better assist the Palestinian Criminal Justice institutions in enhancing their service delivery to the public as well as their inter-institutional cooperation mechanisms, EUPOL COPPS sponsored a visit to Romania from 8-11 December for key senior officials in the justice sector. Participants included the Chief Justice, Attorney General, Deputy Minister of Justice, and Director of the Palestinian Judicial Institute.

EUPOL COPPS employees celebrate Christmas

EUPOL COPPS employees shared some Christmas cheer during the annual festive occasion at the Mission's premises in Ramallah. Senior management of the Mission, which was established in 2006 to mentor and advise the Palestinian Civil Police and Criminal Justice Institutions, began the event to honor the 104 employees' hard work and their contributions to EUPOL COPPS throughout the year.