

EUPOL COPPS and PCP participate in Europe's Day

A joint EUPOL COPPS-PCP delegation participated in the celebrations of Europe's Day organized on 9 May by the Office of the EU Representative which took place in Ramallah. The delegation had the opportunity to distribute brochures, leaflets and promotional materials, showcasing the EU's support to the Palestinian people.

EUPOL COPPS undertakes Training of Trainers with SPF

EUPOL COPPS' Special Police Force Adviser and the Head of the SPF's Training Department accomplished a new Training of Trainers programme, graduating 34 trainer assistants. The training consisted of all fields of SPF expertise: public order, defensive tactics, side-handle baton, communication skills, police ethics and physical training.

EUPOL COPPS promotes PCP's Oversight and Accountability

EUPOL COPPS's Police Advisory Section and the PCP's Police Security and Discipline Department co-hosted a two-day seminar to share best practice in oversight and accountability in policing, and to discuss how to enhance the PCP current oversight system. Specifically in focus during this seminar was the Swedish oversight model for police and prosecution.

Anti-Corruption and Economic Crime Trainings

As part of a larger anti-corruption and money laundering training programme, EUPOL COPPS organised further anti-corruption training sessions for Palestinian public prosecutors and judges. EUPOL COPPS prosecution team also conducted a follow-up training session for the economic crime prosecutors from the Attorney General's Office who attended a study trip to Finland in November 2010.

EUPOL COPPS hosts PCP and Prosecution on Family Protection Study-trip

EUPOL COPPS hosted the Director of the PCP's Family Protection Units and a prosecutor from the Attorney General's Office in Belgium as part of a one week study-trip to visit Belgian Family Protection and Juvenile Police Units of the Belgian Federal Police, as well as the Family/Juvenile/Domestic Violence Unit of the Prosecution Division.

PCP's New Gender Adviser visits EUPOL COPPS

EUPOLCOPPS' Head of Mission, Commissioner Henrik MALMQUIST, met with the recently appointed Police Gender Adviser, Capt. Wafa SULEIMAN. The meeting was also attended by the PCP's Head of Public Relations and Media Department, Brig. Gen. Yousef OZREIL. Thus, Commissioner MALMQUIST had the opportunity to get some direct insights on all the current gender-related activities within the PCP and congratulated the Chief of Police for this initiative.

Juvenile Police undertakes Study-trip to Marseille

PCP officers from the Juvenile Police undertook a study-trip to Marseille. They were hosted by the Police District Commander. They shared the daily duties of the Juvenile Police Department and were allowed to follow some cases (modern slavery, internet paedophilia, among others) involving juveniles, as victims first, and later as perpetrators.